

A Little Book of

Christmas
pet rock
stories

By the
Rubble Clubbers

A LITTLE BOOK
OF PET ROCK
CHRISTMAS STORIES

BY

THE RUBBLE CLUBBERS

PRINTED IN 2010
by Madge Dumpling's
own personal branch
of the
Undergrowby
Book Company
in Undergrowby,
Blackpool,
England

A unique edition
made with great delight
for the December
competition winners 2010

CONTENTS

Peaches Pet Rock Christmas by Lily Welham

My Pet Rock's First Christmas by Annabel Counsell

Excited Blue and his First Christmas by Shannon Harper

Christmas for Pet Rocks by Liddy Eccles

The Christmas Turkey by Megan Eccles

The Abominable Snowman by Isaac Eccles

The Lost Pet Rock by Megan Eccles

Peaches Pet Rock Christmas

Peaches loved Pet Rock Christmas, she loved receiving presents but most of all giving presents. Stan, Esta and other rockies said she didn't have to get them presents but she still did. The other little rocklings gave and received presents to but they didn't enjoy it as much as Peaches did. Peaches decided it was present finding time and she searched all over but couldn't find anything nice enough! She got very worried she needed to keep up her tradition of presents. Then it came to her she had an idea! Finally Pet Rock Christmas day came, Peaches handed out the presents and when everyone opened their boxes their faces lit up. In the boxes was love hearts of different shapes and sizes also a range of colours they were all delighted it was the best Pet Rock Christmas ever.

BY Lily

My Pet Rock's First Christmas

My Pet Rock was very excited about Christmas. He had put up his tree that was decorated and he baked some mince pies for Santa. As my Pet Rock put up his stocking he felt tired and went to bed.

When suddenly there were sounds of jingle bells and he saw Santa in his sleigh with his reindeer, Santa asked if my Pet Rock would like to come with him to drop off the toys to people's houses. My Pet Rock said, "yes!" So that night Santa and my Pet Rock went across the stars until Christmas morning when my Pet Rock was dropped off.

My Pet Rock said, "good bye" to Santa as he went on a journey back to Lapland. My Pet Rock can not wait until next year!

The End
By Annabel Course.

Excited Blue and his First Christmas

Once there was a Pet Rock named Blue who couldn't wait till Christmas (but who can!) On Xmas Eve Blue was jumping all around the house and no-one (not even me) could calm him down, until everyone went to bed. Blue fidgeted in her bed excitedly till Zzz...

"Happy Christmas!" Everyone shouted. Blue, who was quite hyper, jumped out of bed to land on a Pet rock sofa with a Pet Hag Stone waiting for a friend each with a bow!

Blue was ecstatic she jumped here there everywhere Thanking us the whole time Blue had just experienced the true happiness of Christmas.

That Was Blue's First Christmas (which was full of happiness!)

By Shannon Harper

THIS WAS LIDDY'S STORY

AND BECAUSE THEY WOULDN'T FIT NICELY ON THE PAGE I HAVE
PRINTED IT OUT AGAIN ON THE
NEXT PAGE

CHRISTMAS FOR PET ROCKS

by Liddy Eccles

It was Christmas Eve and the baby pet rocks had just been on the Norod website to see where Santa was. When they had seen where Santa was they went to bed hoping that Santa would come.

The next day everyone got up early and woke up their parents. Perky their mum told them to take their stocking into their room.

Whilst they were doing that Jaffer their dad went to get the camera. They came back with their stockings, sat down and started to open them.

When they had finished opening their stockings they went to the lounge. For their lunch they went to the Red Lion. They were all allowed to take one toy. Strawberry took a cuddly dog, Cream took a cuddly dolphin and Dopey took a cuddly crocodile. They all had a wonderful time.

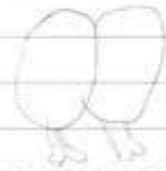

THE END

Pet Rock Story

The Christmas Turkey

On Christmas Day all of the pet rocks gathered round at Unusual's house. Everybody was enjoying the party "I have an announcement", said Unusual, "food time"!!! Everybody went and sat down. When Unusual came to the table with the turkey, but then Unusual dropped the turkey!!! Unusual was so upset that he ran up stairs and cried. All of the other pet rocks fell back about the Christmas Turkey. Smiley had an idea! Smiley ran upstairs to Unusual and brought him downstairs blindfolded and sat him on a chair. All the pet rocks brought in a new Christmas turkey. Smiley unblindfolded Unusual and Unusual was really pleased with all the pet rocks and all the pet rocks had a great Christmas together and ate the turkey.

The Turkey

BY MEGAN ECCLES

Pet Rock Story

The Abominable Snowman

On Christmas day the pet rocks opened up their presents. They got all the presents they wanted. They all went to make a snowman.

There was another snowman called the Abominable Snowman.

The Abominable Snowman jumped out and said "Raaaacccccraagh".

The pet rocks ran for their lives and shouted "It's the Abominable Snowman". Aaaaaaacccccraagh". The Abominable Snowman ate midget. All the pet rocks went and fought the abominable snowman and got midget back.

The Abominable Snowman!

The End

Pet Rock Story

BY MEGAN
ECCLES

The lost Pet Rock

Once upon a time Unusual, Strange, Smiley, Cheeky, Chuck, Tiny and Grumpy were playing in the snow on Christmas Eve. They were having a great time. Suddenly a lot of snow fell down from the great cliff. Everybody was covered in snow. They all laughed about it. All the Pet Rocks went back home but none of them realised they had left Tiny behind. Tiny didn't know where any of the other pet rocks went, and she didn't know ~~the~~ the way home. Tiny went walking off trying to find the other pet rocks, but no luck, she couldn't find them anywhere.

Pet Rocks playing in the snow

Meanwhile later, Unusual and the other pet rocks didn't even notice she had gone. They were partying until Unusual said "Where's Tiny gone"?

Tiny gave up looking for the other pet rocks and slept in the cold snow by the church tower.

All of the pet rocks went looking for Tiny but there was just no sign of Tiny, so all the pet rocks decided to look for Tiny on Christmas day (tomorrow).

All the pet rocks didn't sleep well at all that night because they were too busy thinking about Tiny.

When the pet rocks almost gave up looking for Tiny, Strange said "Hey, look there she is by the church tower."

All of the pet rocks were so pleased that they found Tiny, that it was their best Christmas yet.

These fabulous stories were written at the request of Madge Dumpling, world-famous pet rock whisperer and Chairman of the Rubble Club (see picture on next page) and for the entertainment of pet rocks everywhere. Their authors are all important members of the Rubble Club of Undergrowby.

The stories have all been published on the Rubble Club website.

This was meant to be the December 2010 competition but the judges(the shop customers at the Magic Wand Factory, Dickson Road, Blackpool) kept either breaking down in tears of joy, unable to speak, or claiming they did not have an hour to spare to read all the entries, so it proved impossible to judge.

That being the case, every one of them is declared to be a winner. So that they are not lost for ever, this little book was made to memorialise the stories which have been printed in order of the date they were entered.

Madge Dumpling, Chairman of the Rubble Club, winning the annual snowcastle competition on Blackpool beach, Dec. 2010.

Get your Hag Stones
on the job right now

For a trouble-free
2011

Published by
The Undergrowby Book Company

©Undergrowby2010